Our mission is to create healthy, successful, responsible model citizens through our yearly baseball programs. The Inwood LL strategy for achieving its mission is to offer year round programming and support that stresses excellence, personal accountability, physical conditioning and training. The transitioning of youth from season to season with a team based activities, Inwood LL strives to develop cohesive brotherhood that are confident, motivated and provide mutual support with positive reinforcement for all our players.

Inwood-Manhattan Little League Baseball Inc. is one of the oldest little leagues in New York City, founded in 1950. We are a baseball league affiliated with Little League International Inc., Babe Ruth Baseball and Cal Ripken Baseball. We teach sportsmanship, teamwork and cooperation through an organized baseball programs. We serve approximately 750 kids and teenagers in the Inwood, Washington Heights and Marble Hill area annually. They range in age from 5 to 18 years old and are comprised of communities' demographics for Inwood, Washington Heights and Marble Hill. Our programs are targeted to boys and girls in these neighborhoods. Their baseball skills, which we try to develop, also range from beginner to players good enough to play on high school teams and/or college teams.

Our yearly budget includes the cost of equipment and uniforms, umpires for games, field maintenance, office expenses; trophy awards dinners, summer league, winter program and tournament expenses. We serve the Community Board 12, Councilman Districts 7 and 10.

The Student Athlete Fund is funded by donations from a variety of sources such as private companies, corporations, small businesses, and your everyday citizens.
